Zagreb, (CRO) 04-09 May 2009
FEI Tutor: Mr. Peter Strijbosch (NED)

For the first time, the Croatian Equestrian Federation hosted from 4th to 9th of May a level two course for coaches in the Horse Center Hippodrome of Zagreb.

Directed by FEI Tutor Peter Strijbosch the course was attended by eight coaches, six from Croatia, one from Slovenia and one from Taiwan.

All coaches with FEI tutor Peter Strijbosch (NED)

At the beginning all candidates were a little nervous but thankfully Mr. Strijbosch with his knowledge and his pedagogical approach made them feel more confident. Conducted over 6 days of practical and theoretical work, the course achieved the set objective. With a wonderful team spirit, all coaches showed a great interest and lots of enthusiasm and motivation. A part of the course was also reserved for discussion. For some of the coaches who took part the previous month in the Level 1 course as riders, those conversations were the occasion to understand in a positive way the errors they made in their riding.

For all candidates, organizers and tutor, this first Level 2 course was a great success and will help to promote the sport in the country. The Croatian Equestrian Federation would like to thank you the whole FEI development department who supported and encouraged them to do this course and this even if there was only a small number of participants. Thanks to this course, the federation has moved one step further and looks forward to continuing to develop the education and the coaching in the country.
